

GeoSpectives

Fall 2012

GeoSpectives is the lecture series hosted by the Department of Geography. It is held in Burnside Hall, Room 426, 3-4:30 PM on Fridays in fall semester and on Wednesdays in winter semester unless otherwise stated.

Date: September 14, 2012

Climate Change and Inuit Mental Health: Local Voices, Global Implications

Ashlee Cunsolo Willox

Post-Doctoral Fellow

Department of Geography

McGill University

Date: September 28, 2012

Opposed Sets of Collective Action in a Conflict Context: Land Rights in Darfur

Prof. Jon Unruh

Department of Geography

McGill University

Co-sponsored by the Institute for the Study of International Development, and the Centre for Human Rights and Legal Pluralism

Date: October 19, 2012

India on the Rise: Can Tuberculosis be Controlled?

Prof. Madhukar Pai

Department of Epidemiology, Biostatistics & Occupational Health

McGill University

Date: November 2, 2012

Mapping Contemporary Canadian Cinematographic Territories

Prof. Sébastien Caquard

Department of Geography, Planning and Environment

Concordia University

Co-sponsored by the Digital Humanities Program, and the Institute for the Public Life of Art and Ideas